UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

ELMER TEJADA-PORTILLO

ORDER OF VOLUNTARY DETENTION

FEBRUARY 4, 2005

BOWLER, U.S.M.J.

On February 4, 2005, defense counsel stated in open court that her client would enter into a period of voluntary detention without prejudice. This court will promptly reopen the matter of detention upon motion.

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant be detained. This court orders the defendant's detention subject to the following conditions:

- (1) The defendant be, and he hereby is, committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a corrections facility, separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) The defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with his counsel; and

(3) On Order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which the defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to an authorized Deputy U.S. Marshal for the purpose of any appearance in connection with a court proceeding.
